SMALL TALK

(Cause toujours)
(France/2004/Color/87 mins.)
Director : Jeanne Labrune

Whilst Jacinthe becomes obsessed with the insects which seem to be taking over her apartment, her best friend Léa takes an interest in an apparently dumb middle aged man who works in a supermarket. One day, whilst en route for a stay in the countryside, Léa sees the dumb man on a train and follows him to his home. Not having seen Léa for several days, Jacinthe becomes concerned for her safety...

THE AXE

(Le Couperet)
(France/2005/Color/122 mins.)
Director : Costa Gavras

The thirty-nine-year-old executive Bruno Davert has been working for fifteen years in a paper company. After a merging operation with a Romanian company, he is fired in a downsizing. While unemployed for two years, Bruno loses his self-esteem and sanity and his family loses the middle-class lifestyle without cable television, Internet and regular consumption. He concludes that there is too much competition in his sector for a few job positions and decides to literally eliminate his competitors, killing those more qualified than him.

ERIN BROCKOVICH

(USA/2000/Color/130 mins.)

Director : Steven Soderbergh
Camera : Ed Lachman
Music : Thomas Newman
Cast : Julia Roberts, Albert Finney, Aaron Eckhart

Based on the true story of a twice-divorced mother working as a low-level secretary at a Los Angeles law firm, a chronicle of a woman, without a law degree, who takes it upon herself to fight powerful corporate forces. Hired out of sympathy after her lawyer lost her personal injury suit, Brockovich stumbled upon the cover-up involving contaminated water in a small desert community, while working at the small law firm. Brockovich tracks a case of water poisoning created by PG&E (Pacific Gas & Electric) and champions it all the way up the judicial ladder becoming instrumental in rallying the over 600 plaintiffs and in helping them win the largest class-action suit of its type.

Awards : Received four Golden Globe nominations including Best Dramatic Motion Picture, Best Dramatic Motion Picture Actress (Roberts), Best Director (Soderbergh) and Best Supporting Actor (Albert Finney). It won only one award for Best Dramatic Actress. The film received five Academy Award nominations including Best Picture, Best Director (Soderbergh), Best Actress (Roberts), Best Supporting Actor (Finney), and Best Original Screenplay (Susannah Grant), Roberts won Best Actress, the only Academy Award the film received.

CHESS AND JAM

(Slovenia/2002/Color/90 mins.)
Director : Branko Djuric

A story about a couple from the bottom of the social ladder, about smuggling refugees across borders and other 'suspect' things- it is, first and foremost, an attempt to tell a story about the worst in people, wherever they may be coming from.

A CHICKEN IS NO DOG

(Belgium/2007/Color/90 mins.)
Director : Dorninique Deruddere

When the woman who broke his heart more than 25 years ago suddenly reappears, a former boxer seizes every chance to regain both his true love and sporting honour. A heart-warming comedy by the director of the scar-nominated Everybody Famous, which will 'Firminize' you totally!

CALL GIRL

(Portugal/2007/Color/145 mins.)
Director : Antonio-Pedro Vasconcelos

Maria, a high-class call girl, is hired to seduce Meireles, the mayor of Vilanova, in an attempt to obtain his permission to build a luxury resort on protected land. Meanwhile the cops Madeira and Neves come upon the case and begin an investigation on the politician. But when Madeira finds out that Maria, the bait that will force Meireles to accept to offer, is his long lost love, everything becomes somewhat more complicated.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE BED

(Spain/2002/Color/114 mins.)

Director : Emilio Martinez-Lazaro

Sex, love, lies, bed-hopping and mistaken identities abound in this pop musical-comedy set in Madrid. The gorgeous Paula breaks up with her boyfriend Pedro in order to continue her affair with Javier. The immature Javier however, is unwilling to break up with his current girlfriend Sonia, or confess to their affair to Pedro, who happens to be his best friend.

SUNSHINE BARRY AND THE DISCO WORMS

(Denmark/2008/Color/78 mins.)

Director : Thomas Borch Nielsen

Centers on a young earthworm named Barry who is fed up with being at the bottom of the food chain. All the other insects in the backyard consider earthworms to be major losers: no arms, no backbone and no brain! Barry's only future prospect is a boring "career" as middle manager in the composting business. One day, an old disco record turns his life upside down, and suddenly there's light ahead—Barry wants to start the world's greatest disco band.

FOUR LIONS

(UK/2010/Color/97 mins.)

Director : Christopher Morris

Four Lions tells the story of a group of British jihadists who push their abstract dreams of glory to the breaking point. As the wheels fly off, and their competing ideologies clash, what emerges is an emotionally engaging (and entirely plausible) farce. In a storm of razor-sharp verbal jousting and large-scale set pieces, Four Lions is a comic tour de force; it shows that-while terrorism is about ideology-it can also be about idiots.
