(Tunisia/2019/88 mins.)

Porto Farina also called porto-farina, is a Tunisian film directed by Ibrahim Letaief. The movie "Porto-Farnia" traces the story of Aly, who had not been able to have a child with Chantale and refractory to the adoption, accepts the proposal of his despotic father : re-enter the country to marry Sarah his cousin. What he does not doubt, it is not only his homecoming is going to confront a reality that he did not suspect, but also a dark secret of the family that will make you keen to take its destiny in hand...

MOSTAFA Z

(Tunisia/2017/81 mins.)

The film traces 24 hours of the life of an ordinary Tunisian, Mustafa, caught up with the absurdity of the system. We are on the eve of the first free presidential elections, a crucial deadline for the young Tunisian democracy. Mustapha has a tumultuous relationship with his teenage son and his wife who blame him for his lack of ambition and his effaced nature.

AWARDS/NOMINATIONS:

Prix de la meilleure interpretation masculine Abdel Moneem Chwayet pour son role – Official competition Feature films, Carthage Film Festival

SHATTERED WAVES

(Tunisia/2017/90 mins.)

Hassouna, an officer in the French army, is committed to the cause of independence of his country. In disregard of the risks, he transmits information to the independent activists networks. Once he discovered a list of Tunisian betrayers, he faces rejection and persecution.

WHISPERING SANDS

(Tunisia/2018/95 mins.)

A Canadian woman of Arab descent undertakes a trip and hires a guide to help her find a specific place in the Tunisian desert. To encourage her to reveal her secret, the guide tells her Sufi stories inspired by his childhood. Once in the heart of the desert, the woman reveals the reason behind her voyage. The lighthearted guide learns during the trip that his sons have left the country. He must catch his boys before they engage in a dark and fatal future.

VISIT

(Tunisia/2014/106 mins.)

JOSEF, around thirty, lives solitary person's life. A family drama arisen in his childhood made him orphan and amnesic. But the fortuitous meeting with an attractive and mysterious girl in front of an abandoned house provokes in him a mnemonic process which opens a breach on his forgotten past. He dashes then into a search for identity.

SWEET SMELL OF SPRING

(Tunisia/2016/103 mins.)

Once upon a time there was a naive young man called Zizou, who came to a magic city (Tunis, to be more precise) where, on a popular souk and after some vexations, he found both work and a couple of friends named Adel, Hamma, Sindicato, Hadj Omar.... But life was not easy for all that as there were also villains (henchmen of power, Islamic fundamentalists and other mafiosi - to be more explicit) who alternately lured him to their sides, causing our gullible hero to endure blows, slaps and humiliations galore. Of course, there is no fairy tale without a pure, selfless love and a pure, selfless love did arise when Zizou, working a roof, caught sight of the most beautiful creature he had ever seen. Unfortunately Aicha, the new princess of his heart, was confined in a house against her will by a gang of dangerous mafiosi. With such an obstacle to overcome, would the young man manage to save the belle, end up marrying her and live happily after? All the more as...
